TOTOCK OF SAD DEATH AT NILES.

George J. Howard Loses His Life in Barron Lake While Bathing.

GOT OUT BEYOND HIS DEPTH.

Was Employed in the First National Bank and an Ardent Church Worker.

NILES, July 1-George J. Howard, aged 23 years, was drowned in Barron Lake last night while bathing with a party of friends. The sad death has brought gloom to the home of every friend of the young man.

The accident occured about 9 o'clock. The lake has a treacherous bottom at the point where the bathers were enjoying themselves and the unfortunate boy before realizing his condition got beyond his depth and the waters closed over him before his friends could reach him.

The body was recovered five minutes after it disappeared below the surface of the water and every method to resuscitate the boy was adopted without avail. An hour had elapsed before a physician arrived and he was beyond

The young man was a good swimmer cramp in his limbs. Miss Miller, a very intimate friend of his, was only a few feet away when he sank. She was a skillful swimmer also and the two had started out together to test their powers of endurance. They had just reached deep water when the misfortune came.

The young man was the son of Mrs. George J. Howard, a widow. He was employed in the First National bank and today was to have been promoted to the position of assistant cashier. He was identified closely with religious work and his services in the churches was highly valued. Popular in society, invaluable to his employers, the death of George J. Howard naturally comes like a giant's blow, and everywhere there is grief.

The mother of the young man is employed in the office of the Bell Telephone Company. She is prostrated.

PRETTILY ENTERTAINED.

By Mr. Cady's Class.

The reception given by A. P. Cady's Sunday school class on G. F. Sonner's lawn last night was a pretty fete and was attended by upwards of 60 young people. The trees were illumined with Chinese lanterns and the effect was charming. Dainty refreshments were served, the Mandolin club played and a program of readings and short speeches were enjoyed. Those ap-pearing on the program were Misses Hepler, Storm, Edmunds and Rix. Appropriate remarks were made by Mr. Cady.

FOXY THIEVES.

Three Hobos Get a Good Dinner for Yesterday about 11 o'clock three young fellows entered Austin's restaurant and seating themselves at a table ordered dinner. Miss Myrtle Johnson, employed by Mr. Austin, took their fellows ate their dinner, stepped up to make one of his perilous descents in a haven't been seen since haven't been seen since.

While Miss Johnson was getting their dinner one of the gang went to the sideboard and picking up Miss JohnIN THE CRIMINAL COURTS son's pocket book extracted $1.80, every cent it contained, with which they paid for their dinner.

The theft was discovered a few minutes after the lads had left the restaurant and the officers were notified, but as yet the thieves have not been found.

WILL TAKE A VACATION.

James Baley Advised by His Physicians to Travel.

James Baley, cashier of the First National bank, has been advised by his physician to take a vacation, and as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, within three or four days, Mr. Baley will leave. Although he has not definitely decided it is probable that he will go east. He has not been enjoying good health for some time and it is expected that relief from the close confinement of his office will benefit him. Frank Welton, teller of the bank, will take Mr. Baley's place temporarily and Clarence W. Heath, now bookkeeper, will take Mr. Welton's place at the teller's window. Mr. Hopkins, formerly employed by the bank, has been assigned Mr. Heath's work. This armant will continue until Mr. rangment will continue until Mr. Baley returns.

They Will Entertain Chicago Soldiers July 11.

On July 11 the Alger Guards will entertain a detachment of the Illinois Naval Militia, of Chicago. It is expected that between 40 and 50 men will arrive. The most interesting feature of the occasion will be an exhibition naval drill on Lake Michigan. The detachment will arrive on the afternoon boat and take dinner at the Hotel

The Twin City Telephone Company Is Doing the Local Business Now.

BELL PHONES COMING OUT,

About 100 Have Been Removed or Disconnected and the Bell * Service Crippled.

The Twin City telephone company began business today under the most Lattering conditions. In St. Joseph they have 102 telephones connected and 145 in Benton Harbor, making in all Forty to fifty Bell phones were taken out today and half a hundred more were plugged up. It was impossible to get any sort of service from the Bell today. THE NEWS called up several parties on the Bell and after "central" had rung and rerung then it was necessary to use the new telephone line before the parties could be had.

The new line has the county buildings and every prominent business point in the two cities and will be indispensible to every telephone user. The system works like a charm and already is a great success.

It will be possible to talk to Stevensville over the new line by Saturday or Monday.

The managers of the new company have done such excellent work where it has counted and as far as local business in Benton Harbor is concerned the Bell company appears to be euchred.

JULY 3.

Great Demonstration to Be Held in Benton Harbor.

July 3-Next Saturday-will witness one of the most interesting and enjoyable Independence day celebrations that the city has had in years. The following splendid program has been arranged by J. A. Simon, the manager, all of which will be carried out as advertised:

At day-break the salutatory firing of guns will occur; at 10:30 the men will line up for a seven mile handicap bicycle race, the course being to St. Joseph by way of Napier bridge and return; the sack-racing and pie-eating matches will be held after the noon hour and at 3:30 will occur the event of the day, the public marriage of Mrs. Madeline Shochnesse and Henry Frary, of Stevensville, the ceremony to be held on the street in front of Chester C. Sweet's store. At 4 o'clock Prof. Mcfull uniform is employed for the day,

IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS.

Gaylord Bremer Confesses That He is a Thief.

Sheriff Ferguson returned last night from Lake View, Mich., accompanied by Gaylord Bremer, charged with stealing a gold watch and chain valued at $50 from Mrs. Canfield, residing north of this city. Bremer made a confession and delivered over to the sheriff the stolen property. He will be arraigned before Justice Graves this afternoon when he will probably waive examination and be bound over to the circuit court.

There were 30 prisoners in the county jail last night.

Henry Henning was arrested near Bridgman yesterday afternoon on sus-picion of being connected with the Baroda burglary Tuesday night when Chilson's store was entered. Henning was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Stowe and pending his examination before Justice Hendricks of Baroda July 7, he will remain in the county jail. He is a

M'LEAN'S CHOICE TURNED DOWN

Enquirer Chieftain, Who Also Concedes Anti-Trust and Pro-Cuban Planks in the Platform-Attempt to Fase Fails-Nobraska Prohibitionists Nominate a Woman for Associate Justice.

Columbus, O., July 1.—The Democratio state convention here yesterday was one of the most memorable political occasions in the history of Ohio. It was a convention of unanimity on principles and of differences on men, and especially on those who were candidates for places on the state ticket. In the contests for favorites it was also a convention of endurance, as the delegates took no recess and were in session continuously from 10 a. m. till almost that hour last night. It was a free silver convention throughout. Every candidate whose name was presented was announced as orthodox on silver doctrine, as the cardinal principle for his favorable consideration. While there were some differences of opinion about adopting the anti-trust and the Cuban resolutions there was not a dissenting voice in the convention to the declaration for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without the co-operation of any other nation.

Perfected an Informal Fusion. And the name of William J. Bryan was mentioned in some way by every speaker as the one sure way of bringing out a chorus of applause. While there was no place on the state ticket accorded to either the silver Republicans or to the Populists, yet representatives of both those elements co-operated in the convention, and an informal fusion was perfected. The silver Republicans and the Populists are themselves responsible for having no representatives on the ticket, as they would not ask it and stated that they were more interested in the platform than in the offices. Out of 956 votes cast for supreme judge there were 92 for John J. Harper, a silver Republican.

Slaughtered by the Rural Delegates.

R. T. Hough, the favorite for governor, was slaughtered because of the opposition of the rural districts to the McLean men using the large delegations from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo and other cities to dictate the head of the ticket. Those running next were Chapman, Welty and Sorg. Welty's name was not presented after his friends learned that Chapman had been agreed upon as the compromise candidate. Hough's name was withdrawn before the balloting began, and the name of Sorg was withdrawn before the result of the first ballot was announced. It is reported that the McLean men had an understanding with Chapman and his managers before the convention convened and the vote of the strong Mc-Lean counties for Chapman bears out the report.

WILL STAND BY JOHN R. M'LEAN.

He Is to Be the Candidate for Senator-Other Silver Men Indignant.

In addition to the state ticket nominated there is an implied arrangement for John R. McLean for senator with the state candidates as well as the party organization. Still it is reported that ex-Representative Paul J. Sorg will also be in the field for senator.. The McLean men did not name their first favorite for governor or hold the resolutions as they had fixed them Tuesday night, but these concessions were made in the interest of harmony. They wanted nothing in the platform but the declaration for free silver as the paramount issue. But they would not vote against antitrust and Cuban resolutions when once presented.

The proposal to put a free silver Republican and Populist on the ticket was tabled and an attempt to take it from the table failed. The Cuban declaration demands immediate recognition of belligerency for the rebels. The ticket complete is as follows: Governor, Horace L. Chapman: Lieutenant governor, Melville D. Shaw; supreme judge, J. P. Spriggs; attorney general, W. H. Dore; state treasurer, James F. Wilson; member of board of public works, Peter H. Degnan: school commissioner, Byron H.

Hurd.

The silver Republicans held a conference last night and expressed great indignation. They said it was true they had announced that they did not want a place on the state ticket, but the announcement was not made till after they were told they could not have it. They appointed a state committee to call a convention to nominate a separate ticket. The Populists also announced that they would hold a state convention and have a separate ticket. The Prohibitionists will have two separate tickets, so that there will be at least six tickets in the field.

WDMAN FOR SUPREME COURT.

Nebraska Prohibitionists Nominate One for Associate Justice.

Lincoln, Neb., July 1 .- The state convention of the Liberty Prohibition party was concluded yesterday. Overtures on the part of the regular Prohibitionists for an indorsement of their candidates were ignored, and Mrs. Zara A. Wilson, of Lincoln, was nominated for associate justice of the supreme court, and R. C. Bentley, of Shelton, for regent of the state university.

The platform declares for the utter suppression of the alcoholic drink traffic, for equal suffrage without regard to sex, for a reform of the present financial system by the ultimate adoption of a system of full legal tender paper distributed through government sources on equal terms to all, the supply heing regulated by the demand and ability to furnish adequate security.

lured. None Fatally, However-Engineer Blamed by the Ballway Officers, but Says His Air Brakes Failed to Work and That He Made No Mistake-The Fatal Wreck at Vandalia Chicago, July 1.—Three persons were killed and twenty-one more or less seriously injured in the accident on the Northwestern road at West Chicago. In the hands of the coroner of DuPage county are the bodies of those who lost their lives. The injured were taken to St. Luke's hospital yesterday afternoon and will be cared for until they recover, if recovery is possible. The blame for the terrible mishap is placed upon Michael Courtney, engineer of the fifth section of the special overland train which was wrecked at West Chicago, or Turner Junction, as it was formerly called. The wreck is considered one of the worst that ever occurred on the Northwestern. which is noted for extreme care intransporting passengers, and by far the worst that has happened on this road near Chicago.

Hold the Engineer Responsible.

According to the Northwestern officials who made an investigation of the causes of the accident Engineer Courtney, through carelessness, passed by a block signal semaphore a mile east of West Chicago station. The red light was displayed in the signal lamp. Courtney, however, denies this. "The trouble was with the airbrakes," he said. "They worked all right at Wheaton, but there were two tramps on the train there who were put off. One of them got on again between the engine and the baggage car. He was the one killed. Accidentally or otherwise, one of them must have interfered with the joint in theairbrake hose. The brake worked all right on the engine, but it could not be applied to the poaches. We were running along at not more than twenty miles an hour, when I saw the signal. It was set all right, and I tried to put on the air. This did not seem to work on the cars, and we went right on."

Names of the Dead and Injured.

The list of dead and injured includes people from Wisconsin almost entirely. The dead are: Mrs. Shipman, Appleton, Wis.; John Gooding, Austin, Nev.; John R. Rode, tramp who was riding on front end of baggage car. The injured number twenty-one. The only one not from Wisconsin is the engineer, Courtney, who is from Belvidere, Ills. The worst injured are: William Mitchelstetter, Seymour, back hurt; Mrs. William Mitchelstetter, Seymour, badly bruised; Sarah Shipman, Appleton, left foot sprained and right side badly bruised: Miss C. E. Shipman, Appleton, lip badly cut and other parts of face bruised; L. A. Williams, Fond du Lac, chest badly bruised and right ankle sprained; W. H. Finney, Clintonville, left arm sprained and forehead badly bruised; Mary Baird, Neenah, badly bruised on left side of face; Mrs. M. D. McIntosh, Fond du Lac. right side bruiséd; Mrs. S. Russell, Appleton, back seriously hurt; Amelia McKay, Appleton, left arm Gibson, Appleton, right side of chest hurt and one hip sprained; S. B. Mersch. Appleton, left wrist broken and otherwise injured.

The People Who Were Killed. It was just 1 o'clock yesterday morning when the collision occurred. Mrs. Shioman was about 59 years old. Her skull was crushed, as the train from behind struck the car in which she was with her two daughters. Mr. Gooding was on the platform between the two rear sleepers and was crushed almost beyond recognition. He was a farmer in Wisconin. John Rode was a tramp riding on the "blind baggage" of the fifth section. He was identified by means of first naturalization papers found in his pockets. He took these out in New York, and it is believed he was a German immigrant seeking a home in the west. He was about 45 years old. Gooding's wife was on the train with him, and she and the daughters of Mrs. Shipman were prostrated with grief over the loss of their near relatives. Are much in little; always ready, efficient, satisfac-

IT MAKES COOL AIR.

New System of Ventilation Introduced on the Steamer City of Chicago.

AND IT IS A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Dining Room on the Steamer is Now Cool and a Delightful Place to Rest.

Edward Brammall has just completed a system of ventilation for the steamer City of Chicago which will add much to the comfort of all people who patronize this elegant steamboat.

In the hot weather even in midlake the dining room of the steamer has been so uncomfortably hot that many people have remained on deck and remained hungry rather than visit the dining room. By the new system the dining room is made cool and it is a delightful place to rest and to eat.

The machinery used to keep the lower part of the boat cool is an eight horse steam engine which drives an immense fan which pumps air from above the upper deck and drives it through pipes running to different parts of the boat. In the dining room the air is changed every two minutes. The cold air is driven through pipes very much like those used with hot air furnaces and wherever a cool breeze is desired there is, what in a furnace would be called, a register. In the ladies' cabin there are two of these "registers." The force of the rushing cool air is sufficient to blow off a loosely pressed down hat.

The system cost the Graham & Morton company somewhere in the neighborhood of $700. It is another instance where the transportation company has not saved expense to make comfortable its patrons and its employes.

It is probable that the City of Milwaukee will be equipped with the same system.

OLD OAK FALLS.

it Guarded the Entrance to the Methodist Church.

The old oak that has stood a silent sentinelat the left of the walk entering duired two men to land. The frog the Methodist church ever since that weighs eighty-five pounds and measstructure was erected and for 100 years before, was hewn down yesterday by a gang of men employed by Street Commissioner Shankland.

It was well that it became necessary to fell the old tree, because its race was almost run, and the smallest breeze was liable to topple the decayed veteran over onto the church edifice in which direction it was strongly inclined. Although the tree had every appearance of being sound an ax sunk into its enfeebled body revealed that it was held in its natural position by a mere shell of live wood which did not extend more than three-fourths of the way around at its roots. Its healthy appearance would have discouraged an examination of the tree and had it not been necessary to remove it it would have been permitted to stand until a storm had hurled it against the church with disastrous results.

The tree stood in the way of the building of the new cement walk and the grading of the ground. While Street Commissioner Shankland was yesterday occupied in removing the limbs from the tree an ardent member of the church interrupted him with the prediction that every limb he cut off meant a loss of one member from the church. Having discovered that the tree could scarcely have braved the blasts of another winter every member of the church will rejoice that it was

OPIE REID HERE.

He is Disposed to Linger in the Shades of the St. Joe.

Opie Reid, the famous author of 'The Jucklins' and other characteristic stories of southern life, came over last evening on the City of Milwaukee for a few days outing. He proposes to spend his time amid the shades of the St. Joe river. In conversation with a NEWS reporter Mr. Reid said:

"I have slipped over to get out of the heat of Chicago. I have just finished a new story of southern life the scene of which is laid in the valley of the Mississippi. It will be published as soon as the English copyright is secured.

"By the way, I have been more than pleased at the reception which my southern stories have received from southern stories have received from the English press. The critics have been more than lavish in their praise and when such critics as James Payn praises one it is praise indeed."

A JUDGMENT OF $280.

It is Ready to Serve Against Governor Pingree.

DETROIT, July '1-Chairman Fred A. Baker, of the democratic state central committee, has in his possesgree for $279.09. The governor is in New York, and Mr. Baker will wait until he returns, and invite him to settle before he hands it over to Sheriff Chipman to levy on chattels belonging to his excellency, providing the latter refuses to settle.

The execution is one of the things to remind the governor that when he was mayor he tried to force the fire commissioners to show him their records on a moment's notice.

The $279.09 execution is for costs taxed against the governor. Ex-Judge Gartner received the execution this morning and he turned it over to Chairman Baker.

A LITTLE TOO LATE.

A. Boert Laments Because He Can't Get the Steel Range.

A. Boert, a resident of Benton Harbor, has made a pitiable appeal to Mayor Bell. He is bowed down with deep grief because he lost the opportunity to get the Eclipse steel range offered by Chester C. Sweet to the couple who would consent to a public marriage in front of his store July 3. The grief-stricken young man addressed the following communication to the mayor who promptly delivered it to Mr. Sweet:

BENTON HARBOR, June 30, 1897-HONORABLE MAYOR: People told me that any who like to get married next Saturday in the public in this town, he can have a stove free and free license, but I am sorrow I was to late. My mind was to marry that way. I live mind was to marry that way. I live here in this place all the time. I am in this country, the of five years, and he that will have that happy favor next Saturday belongs to another

He is beating me but I can not blame him. But I am sorrow because I am a poor man an orphan and my girl is an orphan, she have no home she make sion an execution issued from the her living with selling smal goods on supreme court against Governor Pin- the street from house to house and travel from town to town and can not pay her board many times, she is sometimes in the morning she get up from the bed and go out on the street to sell something without any breakfast she is awful poor, she have no clothes nothing and I am no better than she is.

have to work out in the country for 50 cent and board a day but she need all the money I earn and when the winter time is there than I have no work and no money, therefore was my mind to marry in the public to get that stove and may be something else but I did not know it so soon as I was in the country to work. Therefore my Honorable friend, I ask you kindly and in the name of my girl, if thee would be so friendly with your council to do something for us. If I could have work for a dollar a day it would please us, please help us and we shall be very thankful to you.

Look Before You Leap...

Is an old maxim and a good one. It will also hold good in buying Dry Goods. Look before you buy. Do not believe all you see in the papers about prices, clearing out sales, etc. We are all here to make money, at least a living, and a merchant is not going to sell you good, staple goods for less than first cost without getting a double profit on something else. Often we all have goods in our stores which we don't want and these goods we are willing to sell for less than first cost. This is the case with the clothing I have left. 1 will sell anything I have at 65 to 75 per cent on the dollar from first cost. I want the money and do not want the clothing. I can buy dry goods with money and sell them at a profit. If in need of clothing come and see me. I can please the following account of the Vandalia wreck: The special Christian Endeavor train that left this city Tuesday night at 8:20 o'clock over the Vandalla westbound collided head-end with the fast through express due here at 5:40 o'clock yesterday morning, at Vandalla, Ilis. The accident occurred about 1 o'clock in the morning. The two engines were smashed and two baggage cars and one postal car demolished. R. T. Shimer, mail clerk, and W. P. Coon, baggagemaster, of this city, were killed. Samuel Parkinson, of Columbus, O., mail clerk, and Frank Owens, of Terre Haute, fireman, were fatally injured. From the information at hand it is claimed that the accident was due to the crew of the special train misunderstanding orders. The Christian Endeavor train was run out of this city as the second section of No. 11-the fast mail. It was scheduled to leave here at 8 o'clock, but it did not leave until twenty minutes later.

THE NAZIM'S JEM.

I had been ill with fever. They tell that it was a severe illness and has the outcome was for many days in Spart. Twice, they said, my feet pressod on the verge of the dark valley, and twice was I drawn back. I know little of this personally. For two weeks or ore I was either delirious or unconactions. Then, one bright May morning, Leame back from the land of shadows.

It seemed to me, as I lay there, that my mind was unnaturally acute. I fancondition was enfeebled physical condi-tion accentuated the action of my brain. It seemed as if the rest I had given itthe rest, at least, from lucid action— and reinvigorated it. I remember that I threw a great deal of thought into the traction of the first connected sentance 1 addressed to my man. This is what I said:

"Any letters, George?" He started up hastily.

Letters, sir? Yee, sir, letters and a eram. ''

"Road the telegram," I said, after other spell of thought.

He tore open the yellow envelope "Just beard of your illness. Start be bome today. Mary.''

Mary is my promised wife. I recalled mt she was at Colorado Springs with invalid mother when I fell ill. I looked at George. He must have read my question. He seemed to make a mo-

"If all goes well, sir, she should be here today."

Mary was coming. The thought acted on me like a tonic. I wanted to gow aside the blankets and leap to the Soor. Gods! And I couldn't even raise

"Everything shall be as presentable as possible, sir," he said.

As presentable as possible? That note ef exception must mean me. Never ind, Mary was coming, Mary loved too well to take offense at my changed appearance.

"George," I said, "the world is still cattile there, I suppose. Read the news-

He read to me for half an hour or Then I began to take notice of be substance of what he read. When I heard all I wanted, I bade him stop and let the substance of his reading filter through my brain. As I strove to recall it all there was an item that seemed to hold my fancy in a peculiar way. It was a telegram which told that a nisam of far Hindustan had been robed of an almost priceless diamond which it was understood he meant to present to Queen Victoria at the time of the coming jubilee. This story, I say, ned to fascinate me—the diamond the nisam, filched from its oriental cwner, gleaming mayhap from the dusky corner of some squalid hut when it should be eclipsing the jewels of a sen. And Mary was coming. What a aft for Mary that diamond would be-Mary, my queen! There was a strange hamming in my head, but out of it all time one clear thought—I would get that diamond and give it to Mary. When I had determined on this, I seemad to grow cool and calculating. I real- Thereby the sad state of the country, had how helpless I was physically, but her own trials and the anxiety concerning will power, thank God, was still ing her sons' future may well have once left me. My eyes find them-selves gazing at the wall of my room, and presently it opens and through it steps the man who cronched by the city gates. Step by step he comes to my bedside, and his eye glistens and his knife is red, and my eye never leaves his.

Then he pauses and bends low with his arms outstretched.

"Sahib," he murmurs, and his voice is singularly low and gentle, "I am

"The diamond!" I hoarsely murmur. He removes his turban and slowly unwinds its many folds. As he does so the room seems filled with the rustle of garments, and a strange, sweet perfume comes to me. There are whispers, too, and a sound like a stifled sob.

Slowly the stranger unfolds his turban, and suddenly out of it leaps a great white pebble. He lifts it before me betwirt his lean brown thumb and forefinger, and I know that in his other hand he holds the red knife. /

"The diamond of the nisam, sahib," he murmurs.

As he speaks a sudden ray of sunlight falls upon the white pebble and a mighty glory seems to fill the room.

My eyelids drop before that glare. I see the brown face of the Indian bend lower. I see his fingers clutching at his knife. The room grows dark and yet darker. I seem to be slipping away, slipping away.

"John!" Is that my name? Is somebody calling me? What is this that holds my hand and draws me back? No, no; let me go. "John!"

Surely somebody is calling me.

I open my eyes slowly, so slowly. Across the level of my bed I see the face of George leaning forward, his features in the shadow, his eyes gleaming with frightened anxiety, in his hand a tiny medicine glass that catches a dazzling ray of sunlight. Somebody else is there, somebody who holds my hand tightly, somebody who calls again:

"John, dear!"

I raise my eyes a little higher. Another face is bending over me, a white, tear stained face.

"John!" It is Mary.

And so I came back.—W. R. Rose in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Kaiser's Story.

The emperor's "lieblingsblume" has become the national flower of Germany and the symbol of patriotism, but it will never be forgotten why he loved it. and the beautiful and touching story more, read the news just as it came to possesses ever new interest when told hand—telegraph, local, political. For in his own words. Finding how many a time his voice has simply a lulling incorrect versions were spread about to s for the simble field flower, the aged kaiser related the following pathetic incident:

"As my mother fled with myself and my deceased brother from Memel to Kouigsberg during the troublous times at the beginning of our century, the misfortune happened to us that one of the wheels of our coach broke in the midst of the plain. No village was within reach, and we seated ourselves on the edge of the ditch while the damage was being repaired as well as circumstances would permit. My brother and I were rendered both tired and hunary by this delay, and particularly I, being a weak and delicate little fellow, gave my dear mother much trouble with my complaints. In order to distract our thoughts, my mother stood up, pointed out the many beautiful blue flowers in the fields and requested us to gather them and bring them to her. Then she made wreaths of them, and with joy we watched her skillful hands. ling her sons' future may well have once more pressed heavily on my mother's heart, for slowly tear after tear welled from her beautiful eyes and fell on the wreath of cornflowers. This emotion of my devoted mother went deeply to my heart, and, forgetting my own childish sorrow, I attempted to console her with caresses, during which she placed the blue wreath, glittering with tears, on my head. I was then 10 years old, but this touching scene has never faded from my memory, and if now, in my old age, I behold the sweet blue flower, I imagine I see the tears of the most devoted of mothers shining upon it and there-

Jena's Celebration.

The University of Jena this year celebrates its three hundred and fiftieth anniversary. It was founded in 1547 by Prince Johann Friedrich, who, having lost his own University of Wittenberg, together with his personal liberty, at the battle of Muhlberg, took the first steps toward the foundation of Jena. Its first professor was Melanchthon, Luther's friend, but he resigned the same year in consequence of religious dissensions. The first score of students came from Wittenberg, and their numbers grew so fast that their manifestations of joy when, a few years afterward, their prince was liberated were enough to precipitate a first class town and gown riot. As a consequence the townsfolk refused to herbor the students my longer, and it took the intercession of the prince to appears them.

Of the Senate Consideration of the Tarif Measure.

WHAT THE REPUBLICANS BELIEVE

Democrate Make No Promises—Finan Committee Busy Preparing the Bill-No Other Legislation Likely This Session for One Reason That a Querum Cannot Be Maintained-Progress on the Bill Yesterday—Gage on the Whicky Tax.

Washington, July 1. — Senators say zather confidently that a vote can be reached on the tariff bill Saturday. They say that nothing would be gained by having the final vote taken before that day, as the bill cannot be sent to the house before Monday and into conference before Wednesday. Prominent Republisenators say that there is a gen-understanding, though not definite, that the bill will reach a final vote Saturday, but the Democrats have entered into no agreement, nor do they feel under any restrictions by any implied understanding. Occasion, they say, may arise which will induce them to debate some paragraphs longer than they now anticipate.

Hard at Work on the Bill. The Republican members of the senate finance committee consumed several hours last night putting the finishing touches on the tariff bill, and practically adjusted sil the paragraphs that have been passed over. The most important action taken was to agree in principle to the provision in the house bill limiting to $100 in value the amount of baggage of persons arriving in the United States that may be admitted free of duty. The amendment to be proposed by the committee will be in different language from the provision in the house bill, but is designed to accomplish practically the came object.

No Other Legislation This Session. The prospects are that there will be no other legislation of importance at this session. It has been stated before that neither the Hawaiian annexation nor any currency legislation will come up in the senate. It is also known that a quorum cannot be maintained in the senate once the tariff is out of the way. As soon as the tariff bill is sent to the house the senate will take up the general deficiency bill, and it is expected that considerable time will be occupied with it. The senate will also consider a number of nominations over which there is contention. It has been suggested that the Alaskan boundary treaty may be called up, but as it will provoke considerable discussion it will be allowed to go over until next session.

STATESMEN DO RAPID WORK.

Settle the Coal Question and Hawaiian Reciprocity—Gage on the Whisky Tax.

Washington, July 1.-As a result of the rapid work on the tariff bill yesterday the close of the long debate in the schate and the final vote on the bill is felt to be very near at hand. Two of the most important provisions—those relating to the Hawaiian treaty of reciprocity and the duty on coal-were perfected, while another source of much conflict, the reciprocity section, was matured by the finance committee and presented to the senate. Aside from more times with the hoe and then fell these larger items a great many minor ones which have caused more or less conflict were disposed of. The Hawalian provision of the house bill was restored after a brief debate and without the formality of a vote. This has the effect of leaving the Hawaiian treaty of reciprocity in full force and effect. During the day Turple spoke in support of the amendment for a 2 per cent, tax on inheritances.

Under date of June 19 Secretary Gage addressed the following letter to Senator Burrows concerning the proposed tax on distilled spirits: "Sir:-Your letter of the 17th inst. relative to the legislative proposition to secure increased revenue by reducing the rate of tax on distilled spirits has been received. In reply you are informed that I do not think it advisable to endanger the passage of this measure by appending to it a provision shortening the period during which the spirits may remain in the bonded warehouse on the distilley premises. The allusion in my letter, to which you refer, relating to the shortening of this bonded period was merely in the nature of a suggestion, and was not intended as a recommendation."

Chandler has added a provision to his amendment to the tariff bill relating to railroad pools a provision prohibiting the issuance of free passes as follows: "The giving by one person as officer, agent or representative of any common carrier of any free passes or any free transportation not expressly authorized by section 22 of the interstate commerce act shall be deemed an unlawful discrimination and a misdemeanor and punished accordingly." He presented the amendment in its amended form yester-

Fact That Ruins's Story.

Washington, July 1.-The story, widely printed, that President Cleveland refused during the last days of his admin-istration to appoint Phil Sheridan, sin of the hero-general, to a West Point cadetship, has fallen flat by the discovery that young Sheridan was not of Workers union, has telegraphed the lolegal age to secure such appointment and will not have attained the required 17 years until July 20. It is also a wellknown fact in army and society circles that the Clevelands and Mrs. Sheridan were close friends.

General One Was Intended Until the Papers Got Hold of the Fact.

Pittsburg, July 1.-A delegate convention of coal miners of the Pittsburg district has been called for next Saturday by District President Dolan, at which the miners will decide whether or not a strike shall be inaugurated for a higher rate. The call says all miners, 111 W: Main St., organised and unorganised, will be entitled to representation. In speaking to a correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday President Dolan said: There will be no strike of minersat this time unless the convention decides in favor of such action. Joseph A. Nolan, of Niles, by Attor-ncy Lambert filed a sensettional Will for divorce in the direult court this merning against his wife, Emma Nolan. He married her February 1, 1885, and she abandoned his home last March. He charges her with extreme cruelty and asks the court that he be given the custody of an infant child.

The husband shows in the bill of complaint that in the summer of 1892 his wife became acquainted with a book agent named J. C. McGlue and habit-D.F. Murphy, of the barber shop in she received letters from him, sat on his lap, kissed him, combed his hair his lap, kissed him, combed his hair ually sought his companionship; that and indulged in sundry endearments to him; that in the autumn of 1896 Mrs. Nolan met a man named Thomas and professed to her husband that she loved Thomas more than him. Her husband remonstrated and Mrs. Nolan in March, 1897, abandoned her husband's home with the declaration that she preferred Thomas' society to his.

Nolan further avers that in January, 1897, his wife assaulted him with a piece of iron and wounded him so that he has been sore ever since, and later assaulted him with a stove poker three feet long because he reproached her for with McGlue, keeping company Thomas and others.

THAT $10,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

The Allegations Made by the Plaintiff Mrs. M. J. Godown.

Lawyer W. C. Hicks today filed the against Fred E. Avery for the injury call on or address she suffered by reason of the drowning of her son in the canal which accident she alleges, was the result of the de-fective condition of the dock property

The boy was five years of age and left his home, accompanied by other children, to play. He wandered down to the canal and fell into an opening in water below in which he was found several hours later. He had strangled

The declaration recites that the wharf where the boy was drowned was in general use by the public which fact should have incited the defendant to have kept it in reasonably good repair, but, the declaration says, "he carelessly, negligently and knowingly allowed the dock to fall into a decayed and dangerous condition," permitting a hole to form which contained eight feet of water and covered an area of 300 square feet, which hole should proposely have been which hole should properly have been guarded by barriers and notices both by day and night. Well knowing that children frequently resorted to the street adjacent to the dock and to the dock itself to play, it is alleged, the defendant lett boards floating upon the water in the hole to, which children were enticed and to which they were not denied access.

It is futher alleged that the condition of the dock was not in keeping with the demands of a city ordinance governing that matter and that the defendant had been notified by the city that repairs were needed upon them.

By reason of the death of her son the plaintiff insists that she has suffered great mental agony and sorrow and has been put to great expense and suffered great pecuniary loss from, being deprived of his services.
